

7-16-1826

Letter to Philander Chase

Lord Kenyon

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters

Recommended Citation

Lord Kenyon, "Letter to Philander Chase" (1826). Philander Chase Letters. 635. https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters/635

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives at Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Philander Chase Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

home with renovated spirits. By God's blessing the information is advancing not slowly I trust in Ireland notwithstanding the violence exercised towards the Protestants, strongly showing therein the weakness of human rage, & the still stronger voice of true Religion. I hear occasionally from A. Hodgson whom you seem unabated. He is I hope going on prosperously & sowing multitudes.

He is in Liverpool.

The good Bishops of Salisbury & Bath & Wells, I deeply keep quite well, but the latter has lost Mrs. Law, & has much anxiety concerning the health of some of his family poor man. They are all I believe amiable, but as if his was not quite discreet. The Bishop of Salisbury is sadly disappointed in not having succeeded in placing Mrs.
Briggs for whose sake alone he moved from H. David & Salisbury. She thanks the latter plan which she did H. David. Palau when she was there.

All our kindest respects & regards

At Mrs Bishop Chase

Lord Kenyon
1826

To Mr Chase, to whom of yourself I feel our debts are most owing for your prayers & kind acceptance of our attack now, than any we owe to us. We most cordially return them in prayer for the best blessing of God to you & yours. Ever your most obliged and affectionate Kenyon